

Mike Carlson: Chief Operating Officer of Esin

A unique blend of legal expertise, humanitarian vision, and military service defining exceptional leadership.

As Chief Operating Officer of Esin, Mike Carlson has drawn on decades of experience at the intersection of law, global humanitarian initiatives, and armed forces leadership. His distinguished legal background has equipped him with a robust foundation in navigating complex regulatory landscapes and ensuring compliance at every organizational level. Beyond his legal acumen, Mike is driven by a profound commitment to humanitarian causes, consistently fostering projects that uplift communities and champion social responsibility.

Mike's military service has further refined his ability to lead with discipline, integrity, and strategic foresight, enabling him to manage teams under pressure and adapt to rapidly changing circumstances. At Esin, he leverages this multidimensional expertise to cultivate a culture rooted in ethical leadership, innovative problem-solving, and global collaboration. Mike Carlson's vision continues to define the company's path, inspiring those around him to pursue excellence, integrity, and lasting positive impact.

Legal Expertise

Social Justice Advocacy

Mike began his distinguished career as an attorney specializing in social justice advocacy.

Academic Contribution

His commitment to legal education led him to academia, where he taught law at the university level.

International Law

Mike leverages his extensive knowledge of international law in his professional endeavors.

Humanitarian Vision

Throughout his professional journey, Mike has maintained an unwavering dedication to humanitarian causes, establishing multiple organizations that foster collaboration between philanthropists and NGOs.

Military Service

U.S. Navy Enlistment

Beginning of military career and service to country

1

2

First Tour of Duty

Deployment to Africa, developing leadership skills and global perspective

3

Second Tour of Duty

Deployment to the Middle East, further enhancing leadership capabilities

4

Veteran Status

Proud U.S. Navy veteran bringing military experience to civilian leadership

Leadership at Esin

Chief Operating Officer

Mike Carlsson serves as Chief Operating Officer of Esin

Military Experience

Applying leadership skills developed during naval service

Legal Expertise

Bringing specialized knowledge in social justice and international law

Humanitarian Vision

Implementing collaborative approaches to organizational challenges

Global Independent Organization

Co-Founder

As co-founder of an emerging global independent organization

Professional Network

Leveraging his worldwide professional network

Aid Transformation

Transforming aid delivery to developing regions

Meaningful Impact

Creating lasting societal change through innovative approaches

Academic Contributions

University Teaching

His commitment to legal education led him to academia, where he taught law at the university level.

Social Justice Curriculum

Developing educational materials focused on legal advocacy for underserved communities.

Mentorship

Guiding the next generation of legal professionals dedicated to humanitarian causes.

Professional Journey

Legal Career

Mike began his distinguished career as an attorney specializing in social justice advocacy.

Academic Position

His commitment to legal education led him to academia, where he taught law at the university level.

Humanitarian Organizations

Throughout his professional journey, he has maintained an unwavering dedication to humanitarian causes, establishing multiple organizations.

Esin Leadership

Mike Carlsson serves as Chief Operating Officer of Esin, bringing a unique blend of expertise to his leadership role.

Collaborative Initiatives

Throughout his professional journey, Mike has maintained an unwavering dedication to humanitarian causes, establishing multiple organizations that foster collaboration between philanthropists and NGOs.

Unique Leadership Blend

Legal Expertise

Mike began his distinguished career as an attorney specializing in social justice advocacy and maintains extensive knowledge of international law.

Humanitarian Vision

Throughout his professional journey, he has maintained an unwavering dedication to humanitarian causes, establishing multiple organizations that foster collaboration.

Military Service

A proud U.S. Navy veteran, Mike Carlsson completed two tours of duty in Africa and the Middle East, further developing the leadership skills and global perspective.